LEGAL ONE (a partnership of the Foundation for Educational Administration and Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey) and the New Jersey Principals and Supervisors Association are offering professional development opportunities related to New Jersey’s Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights. We request that the Department include in its weekly broadcast emails the workshop listed below.

Contact: David Nash, Esq.
LEGAL ONE Director of Legal Education
Tel. (609) 860-1200
Email: dnash@njpsa.org

May 1, 2014 - “Update: NJ’s Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights” http://fea.njpsa.org/documents/legalone/AntiBullyingBill.pdf
9 a.m. to noon
FEA Conference Center, 12 Centre Drive, Monroe, NJ 08831

Description: The Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights that has been in place for nearly 3 years is widely considered the most sweeping anti-bullying law in the nation. This workshop will review the very latest on the new law, including decisions from the Commissioner of Education on parent appeals of HIB findings; summary of cases decided in state and federal court addressing HIB and related discrimination claims; latest guidance from the NJDOE on implementation of the ABR; an overview of the latest report of the Governor’s Anti-Bullying Task Force; an overview of key best practice strategies related to school climate and the role of the school safety team; and key tips for more efficient and effective HIB investigations.

Target audience: School safety team members, District Anti-bullying Coordinators, School Anti-bullying Specialists, Guidance Counselors, School Nurses, Athletic staff, School principals, vice principals, directors, supervisors, superintendents

Registration deadline: April 29, 2014
For more information and to register, visit www.legalonenj.org http://www.legalonenj.org/nj%E2%80%99s-anti-bullying-bill-rights-5114