Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service

Co-sponsored by

Celebration ★ Commemoration ★ Action

Everybody is welcome! This is a day for students of all ages & families, educators & all school staff, community leaders and activists.

Monday, January 20, 2014

1:00 - 4:00 pm

at The Kidsbridge Tolerance Museum

(Forcina Hall at The College of New Jersey 2000 Pennington Road, Ewing)

Learning and strategies for high, middle and elementary school youth – and for the adults in their lives as well!

- FREE Open House at The Kidsbridge Tolerance Museum.
- Commemorate the life and works of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. while learning about ways to keep his vision alive.
- Step-up and make a difference by creating a safe and welcoming community.
- Kick-off No Name Calling Week, January 20-24, the right way.

GLSEN Central New Jersey: A community organization where gay and straight people work together toward a day when every child learns respect and acceptance for all people regardless of sexual orientation and gender identity (www.glsen.org/centralnj).

The Kidsbridge Tolerance Museum: Located on campus at The College of New Jersey, this interactive museum is filled with thought-provoking exhibits where every child gets to learn about recognizing and ending prejudice, valuing differences, and being an UPstander instead of a bystander (www.kidsbridgemuseum.org).

Questions? Need additional details?

Contact Lynne Azarchi at lynne@kidsbridgemuseum.org or 609-581-0239.

See attached packet for directions to TCNJ’s campus & Museum parking map/info.

“Everybody can be great because anybody can serve. You don’t have to have a college degree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love.” --Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.