SUBJECT: NJ K-12 Kids Safe Online Poster Contest

The New Jersey Cybersecurity & Communications Integration Cell (NJCCIC) and the New Jersey Office of Homeland Security and Preparedness (NJOHSP) are hosting the “2015-16 NJ K-12 Kids Safe Online Poster Contest.” Attached is an informational flyer that can be distributed to all parents, teachers and students in the New Jersey public, private and home-schools, inviting students to participate in the contest.

This is a great opportunity for teachers to talk to students about being safe while on the Internet and when using computers and mobile devices. A winning poster (one from each K-12 grade) will be selected as the New Jersey State winner and will be entered into the Multi-State Information Sharing & Analysis Center (MS-ISAC) National Computer Security Poster Contest. National contest winning posters will be included in the 2017 Annual MS-ISAC calendar distributed in the fall of 2016.

You can find more information at www.cyber.nj.gov/2015-16-nj-kids-safe-online-poster-contest. Questions may be submitted to mvance@cyber.nj.gov.

Don’t miss out! The contest entry deadline is January 18, 2016.
