Autism New Jersey’s Transition Conference

Autism New Jersey’s Transition Conference, to be held Monday, February 25 at the Renaissance Woodbridge Hotel, will focus exclusively on preparing teens across the autism spectrum to enter adulthood and the adult service system. Designed for parents and professionals supporting individuals aged 14 and older, all of the information and resources shared is scientifically validated and will address the unique needs of these students. Families, teachers, paraprofessionals, child study team members, related service providers, and administrators have all reported the benefits of this event.

Sixty exhibitors are expected, and workshop topics will include:

- Environmental Enrichment and Challenging Behaviors;
- Self-Regulation and Problem-Solving;
- Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Services; and
- Preparing for the Transition to Adult Day Services.

For more information and to register, go to the Autism-NJ conference webpage.
