Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration Scheduled for October 29

The New Jersey Department of Education's (NJDOE) Division of Executive Services is sponsoring a Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration for high-school students to be held from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday, October 29, at the George Washington Ballroom of the Trenton War Memorial, 1 Memorial Drive, Trenton.

The program, designed specifically for students in grades 9-12, will include networking opportunities and panel discussions focused on advocacy and the New Jersey Seal of Biliteracy. It will include visual, performing and culinary arts created by students from around the state.

Registration must be done online through the NJDOE's Calendar of Events. Onsite registration will not be available. There is no registration fee. Because space is limited, participants are encouraged to register in advance of the October 18, 2019 deadline.
